

SU System Presidential Search Committee Co-chairs Address Baton Rouge Press Club

Southern University Presidential Search Committee Co-chairs Domoine Rutledge and Murphy Bell were featured as the guest speakers for the Baton Rouge Press Club Meeting held Monday, September 21, 2009 in downtown Baton Rouge.

During their talk, Rutledge and Bell discussed the following: the importance of the presidential search; the significance of Southern University as an economic driver; striving to build programs that bring Southern University national and international recognition; the System's Fall 2009 enrollment; and enhancing relationships with the business community and other external constituencies to have a greater impact locally, nationally, and globally.

Media representatives in attendance included Louisiana Network, Louisiana Public Broadcasting, Baton Rouge Business Report, The Advocate, along with a host of other television stations and public relations professionals / representatives.